HONGEGEG, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1892

From a remarkable effusion which appears in the Daily Press of this morning we gather that our contemporary has just found out that there is a kind of recreation ground at the Happy Valley. It has also discovered that cricket, football, golf and 2.30 p.m. - Audion of Chinese Curios, hockey are played there. Most people in the colony knew all this long ago. Nobody, however, would be prepared for Goods per Keenun undelivered after this | the statement that broken bottles and orange peel strew the surface of the ance Co., Lid., closed from this date ground referred to. This looks like a piece of ploturgaque exaggeration, and we doubt not that the implication which it conveys will be indignantly denied by those who are in the habit of frequenting the recreation ground. Apart from the broken bottles 4 p.m.-Meeting of Shareholders of The and orange peel, the article in question Dairy Farm Co., Ltd., at No. o, Stauindicates either a wonderful lapse of meor else profound ignorance in regard to a that the C. M. S. N. Co. es. Kelsow, from reasonable-were made, discussed and adopted long ago, and have either been, or are in course of being, carried out. What delay has taken place in carrying out the improvements has been caused by the misunderstandings connected with Athletic Club lease. All these matters, however, are now settled or in a fair way to settlement. Our contemporary seriously suggests that the 'site of the p nd'should be converted into a cricket ground. That is precisely what has been decided to do with it as soon as the recently filled-in soil settles sufficiently. Polo, we are told, should never be permitted in the the Happy Valley ; Polo is fuot played at gravely 'suggesting' the doing of a number of things which have already been done our contemporary rises to a sublime height of absurdity thus- The only question remaining is whose duty it is to take the Happy Valley in hand and render at attractive to the public. Clearly being Green Capsale ..........$10 $1.00 public ground it is the daty of the Government, and we feel sure we shall not appeal to Sir William Robinson in vain to take the matter into consideration without delay. An energetic Committee should be appointed at once with powers to frame regulations and by laws for the control and management of the ground. In 0.60 view of the fact that the Government have already recognised their duty in this respect 7.50 0.75 and actually taken the Happy Valley in hand' the appeal to Sir. William Robinson to take the matter into consideration without delay is simply ludicrous; and considering that a committee has already been formed for the control and management of the ground, it is difficult to see what another committee is wanted for. To be sure it is the appointment of an 'energetic perhaps that is our contemporary's delicate way of insinuating that the present committee is not energetic; but judging from result of an ignorance on this point as DLa Rose, Red Capsule ..., 11 12.00 colossal as is shown with respect to almost every other point touched upon. - Excellent use is being made of the recreation ground by the various clubs, and, so far ' from there being any such plashing between them as the Daily Press assumes, we believe they work together in the most harmonious manner.

The searching inquiries made by the insurance companies at Shanghai into the causes of fires seem to have produced the same good results as the operation of the Fire Inquiries Ordinance has produced here—a remarkable dimination, in the number of fires. From this, the Mercury observes. it is evident that the greater number of fires occurring in Chinese houses must have been the result of incendiarism.

A corp coin has just been found at Borgerac which will interest annieurs. It is a stater, or tetradrachom, of Philip II. of Macedonia. It weighs seven and a half grammes. This coin must, it is said, have been struck by the Gauls two or three centuries before the Christian era. According to M. Lenormant there is only one other cain of this description in existence.

COMPENSATION FOR ALIENATED AFFECTIONS. -In the Circuit Court of Dearborn County, Indiana, recently Mrs Leah Haynes sued Flora Knowlin for £5,0: O damages on the ground that defendant had alienated the affections of plaintiff's husband from her. The defendant demurred that in common law and by the outtom of the country plaintiff had no grounds for action, and this view was also to on by the judge, who hold that a husband could claim damages for the alienation of his wife's affections, but that no corresponding right was onjoyet by the wife. On appeal, however, the wfe's equal right of action in this respect has been upheld by Chief Justice Elliott, of the Supreme Court of Indiana, Davies, Dick, Orlebar, Fuchs, Jones all his colleagues concurring.

Ir has been laid down authoritatively by Mr Justice Lawrence that 'abuse merely costs nothing. In this it is like profanity, and the remark of the learned judge will be of interest to many people who may have disapproved of the acts of any of their acquaintances and yet have not known their own privileges with regard to the way they might comment on them. In a case which Mr Justice Lawrence had before him at Manchester, his lordship remarked that although 'to call a man a thief is slander, to call a man a damned thief is not.' The latter is 'abuse morely,' and is consequently much the safest form, on the presumption, of course, that the maker of the observation is a suitable distance from the speaker. A low court is undoubtedly the place for picking up handy information.
